

The Bequest

The Scholarship was established in 1998 by a Bequest to the University under the will to the late Leslie Campbell-Brown to encourage postgraduate research studies overseas.

Purpose and Value of Award

- The object of the scholarship is to enable PhD students to undertake collaborative or comparative research and/or develop their research or scholarly skills by visiting overseas universities and relevant organisations and institutions.
- One or more scholarships may be awarded annually with the annual total value of scholarships not to exceed $6000.
- Applications will be called for in April and September each year. Applications should be made to the Director of Research Higher Degrees, NMSW.

Eligibility

- Candidates must be an enrolled and confirmed PhD candidate in the School of Nursing, Midwifery and Social Work, studying in the field of social work or human services.
- Candidates must provide a plan indicating how the scholarship would be spent furthering the applicant's research and research development. The plan must involve travelling to visit an overseas university, organisation or institution.
- Candidates who have previously held a Graduate School Research Travel Award are generally not eligible to apply. A case of exceptional circumstances may be made.
- Awards will not be made retrospectively.
- The selection committee will consider the quality of the applicant's work during their entire postgraduate career and the student's plan.
- The successful applicants will be selected by a committee, chaired by the Director of Research Higher Degrees, NMSW. The committee will be comprised of the Head of School of Nursing, Midwifery and Social Work, the Director of Research Higher Degrees, a member of the School Research Committee and a representative of postgraduate students in the School.

Application Procedure

Your application must consist of the following:

1. Coversheet

- Stating name and contact details, enrolment status and date, expected date of completion and advisory team.

2. Applicant's Statement

- Applicants should provide a plan indicating how the scholarship would be spent furthering their research and research development.
- Your statement must not exceed three pages.
- The statement should include a statement on the stage you have reached in your thesis, a summary of the work you propose to carry out, the nature of the resources you propose to use, why this work cannot be undertaken at UQ, and how this work will speed up the submission and or quality of the thesis. You must state a discernible goal or outcome.

3. Budget

- Please complete a brief budget of the resources required and a justification of the budget.

4. Statements from Principal Advisor or Advisory team

- Advisors should attach a one paragraph justification of the award on the basis of expediting or improving the quality of the thesis and enhancing the research development of the candidate.
