

NMSW Financial Hardship Scholarships Application Form – 2018

Scholarships are available to students enrolled in a nursing, midwifery, social work, human services or counselling program. The purpose is to provide assistance to meritorious students whose financial circumstances might otherwise prevent them from achieving their maximum potential during their university study. The funds are intended to assist with the cost of equipment, materials and other study-related items.

- One or more scholarships may be awarded annually. Scholarships will be between the values of $500-$1000.
- Applications will be called for in semester 1 and semester 2 each year.
- Awards will not be made retrospectively.
- The selection committee will consider the quality of the applicant's work during their studies and the applicant's statement.
- The successful applicants will be selected by a committee, chaired by the School Manager, NMSW. The Committee will be comprised of the Program Leads in the School.

In order to be eligible for this scholarship an applicant must –

- have an active enrolment in a program offered by the School of Nursing, Midwifery and Social Work.
- provide a plan indicating how the scholarship would be spent furthering the applicant's study.
