Reflecting on your education and experience so far, highlight one thing that has most prepared you for counselling and one gap that is a priority for you to learn during your training?

(Maximum 250 words)

Given that there are a lot of different helping professions, what do you think is distinctive about counselling that makes you want to choose it as a career?

(Maximum 250 words)

If we were to ask those who know you well (e.g. family, friends, co-workers) about how you communicate and relate to others, what do you think they would say are your major strengths and challenges?
